About Me

Our daughter accepted the Lord when she was nine and was baptized at 11—filled with the Holy Spirit shortly after that. She is very involved in our family ministry (both parents are ordained ministers). She has been working every summer supporting our VBS, Family Camp, Summer Camp, Youth Retreats, and such. She serves on the worship meet at our local church and is the Director of the Sparks Club in AWANA ministry. She has taught Children's church on her own since she was 16. While she serves in the church with her God-given talents, she is not looking for a life partner in the ministry; we, as a family, are trusting God for a spirit-filled, god-fearing young man who can walk with her in this life journey. She is a Behavioral Analyst at a school, working with children between the ages of 9-15. She is also pursuing her Master's in Criminal Justice and Criminology, with a minor in psychology. A young man in the U.S. or abroad is preferred, someone who has a good command of the English language.
