About Me

I hail from a middle class Protestant family. I was born and brought up in Hyderabad by God fearing and responsible parents. I am an extrovert, caring and out spoken (sometimes). I enjoy being in the present of God's minister and work. I take joy in singing and working for the kingdom of God in whatever possible way in serving him. I prefer a God fearing person who puts God as his first priority in life. He who respects women who understands and prioritises his needs and wants in life, acknowledging the responsibility of a family as a husband, son and as a father is what I wish for in my future partner.
