About Me

About Me: Hello, I was born and brought up in Nashik, and am currently working in Mumbai. From a very young age, my brother, sister and I were introduced to God, sin and salvation. We grew up in the church, learning memory verses, singing the hymns and were always reminded of our priority towards God. I was quite young when I first heard about Christ's death on the cross. It was when I was 15 years old, that the Holy Spirit convicted me of my sins. The moment I accepted Christ into my heart, I felt the Holy Spirit lift a weight off my shoulder. Through the parable of the Lost son God clearly spoke to me about his Love and how he had already paid a price for my sins on the cross. I felt remorseful of my sins and received Jesus in my heart in 2014. Since then, I have been walking with the Lord as He continues to sanctify me more and more in His likeness. All my self-worth comes from the fact that I serve a risen Saviour. What would i prefer in my future partner : I pray and believe in having a partner who loves Christ and is saved by Christ. someone who has a close walk with christ every day. Christ must be the foundation of the relationship, looking to him, and trusting in him. Together we should grow closer to God and fulfill God's plans for us. I want him to be involved in ministry and have the heart to help people in general irrespective of their background (generous and hospitable). taking the word of God seriously. partner through the difficulties. maturity in communicating clearly. Someone who encourages and appreciates the little things. we can complement each other. Go to God for everything. Stands for Christ. Sticks to his word. not afraid to be vulnerable and emotional. able to handle the house and take leadership in the home.
